WAIVER AND RELEASE

The claimant has been paid and has received a progress payment in the payment amount stated above for labor, services, equipment or materials furnished to the customer named above on the job of the owner named above, located at the project stated above, and does hereby release any mechanics lien, stop payment notice or payment bond right the claimant has on the job to the following extent.

This release covers a progress payment for all labor, services, equipment or materials furnished to the customer through the through date stated above only, and does not cover any retention, any pending change orders or extras, any disputed items, or any labor, services, equipment or materials furnished after that date, as listed under exceptions below.

NOTICE TO CLAIMANT: This document waives and releases lien, stop payment notice and payment bond rights unconditionally and states that you have been paid for giving up those rights. It is enforceable against you if you sign it, even if you have not been paid. If you have not been paid, use a conditional waiver and release form.

General form for use where no statutory lien waiver form is prescribed. Twelve states prescribe the form and wording of lien waivers by statute — California, Texas, Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Georgia, Florida, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, Mississippi and Wyoming — and a waiver on this form may be ineffective there; use the form in the statute or from the state agency and verify it is the current version. Not legal advice. Lien law, notice deadlines and waiver rules differ by state; have a construction attorney licensed in the project's state review before relying on this form.

The claimant has been paid in full for all labor, services, equipment or materials furnished to the customer named above on the job of the owner named above, located at the project stated above, including all retention, and does hereby waive and release any right to a mechanics lien, stop payment notice or any right against a payment bond on the job, except for the disputed claims for additional work listed under exceptions below.

The claimant further represents that it has paid, or will pay from the proceeds of this payment, every subcontractor, supplier and laborer who furnished labor, services, equipment or materials to the claimant for this job.

NOTICE TO CLAIMANT: This document waives and releases lien, stop payment notice and payment bond rights unconditionally and states that you have been paid for giving up those rights. It is enforceable against you if you sign it, even if you have not been paid. If you have not been paid, use a conditional waiver and release form.
